Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith for sanction of the Government the following resolution of the municipal council dated 29-3 1949 for the levy of the octroi on exciseable goods and the enhancement of existing rates on exciseable goods Objections were called for from the public and no objections were received

Thereupon the municipal council at their meeting held on 8-5-49 have resolved to obtain the sanction of the government to the resolution Dated 29 3-49

The resolution is made with a view to increase the finances of the municipality to meet growing demands on its Revenue

I therefore pray that sanction of the Government obtained for the resolution of the municipal council early so that the council may be enabled to levy the octroi from 1-7-1949

The Deputy Commissioner Tumkur District in his inspection report Dated 20-5-1949 has observed, it is suggested that in view of the poor financial condition heavy commitments of the Municipality the existing low rates of octroi be suitably increased and octroi levied on other articles maintaining Municipal revenue
